

With a monstrous 800 new tracks to unveil we also welcome four new labels to the fold with open arms as Chaman Records, Ginger Duck, Opit and Scsi-av join the electronic evolution.

Advanced kick things off with the mighty Sinister Remixes from Dare & Haste which is getting picked up across the board, from Laurent Garnier to Judge Jules, Dopefish continues his electro-house assault with Y.A.R.D.C.O.R.E, Compuphonic bring Factor City more future tech house winners and Ginger Duck get the party started with Nick Hollyster's tech-house rhythms in 'African Whistle'.

EevoNext continue to show why they are 'next' level techno with the dub infused style of Art Bleek's 'Message to the Dreamer' album, Laz's Superstonic continue to re-write the rule book with Axiom's 'I Love' house grooves, Clatterbox once again deliver the electronic goods on Z-Bop and nutempo show us once more why they are minimal techno's brightest new stars with two new EPs of stunning quality.

Phantasm hit us with a blizzard of electronic releases from the likes of Dynamo, Bliss, 220 Volts and many more, BIP fire in with the mighty Hit Selection Volume 1 and chart bound vision of D-Licious 'I'll Get It', Crunchy bring their unique house style with Mustax's 'Off Season' and Damon Vallero ventures into deep house territory with the 'Clear Future' EP on Downstream.

Chaman Records is a tech house label based in Spain, started in 2000 and gained a big reputation among DJs and specialized press from their first release. Having released six vinyl records between 2000 and 2004 from artists like Dj Mouse, 7th Heaven, Angel de Castro and the manager of the label, Higinio aka Chaman, after a long break they are back stronger than ever. Now with big names like Acumen, Matt Flores, Tom Wax and Franksen and also some of the best Spanish producers like David Herrero, Darkrow or Higinio, the manager of the label. www.myspace.com/chamanrecords

Ginger Duck fell passionately in love with techno, house and tech house to bring about a collection of sounds that stand out from the masses. Strong, bold and unique, tracks. Ginger Duck's evocative, emotive melodies and hypnotic driving rhythms pluck heartstrings, release endorphins and expose you to a wave of new sounds handpicked from all over the world. Ginger Duck's aim is to seek out the newest talent, also signing respected artists, to lead the way in years to come with imaginative, inspiring music that remains close to your heart. To be at the forefront of the tech house and techno scene. It is going to be an explosive first year for Ginger Duck Recordings. www.gingerduckrecordings.com, www.myspace.com/gingerduckrecordings

After a string of 12's on a variety of labels including her own co-run (now defunct) Immigrant/ Imminent Recordings and an astonishing single on Planet Mu in late 2009, this double A of Picture/ Spectrums is Subeena's debut release on her own Opit label. With support already from the likes of Jamie Vex'd, Surgeon, Laurent Garnier, Hudson Mohawke, Jackmaster, Bok Bok and Rob Booth we predict a bright future ahead for this genre-hopping label.

Scsi-av was set up by Daz Quayle to release records from a close family of electro and techno producers. Previously Daz had worked on various projects with Carl Finlow under guises such as Scarleton on Electron Industries and ll.ek.tro on Klang and needed an outlet for future works.

In 2002 the mysterious detroit Duo 'Ultradyné' (Warp/Pi Gao) recorded a seminal 12" for the label called unknown works and fellow producers recording for scsi-av in the early days were Carl Finlow, Nick Simpson (Rhythm invention on Warp/Hazed on Plus 8) and the prolific Wee DJs. Since then the label has released records by Luke Eargoggle, Mariel ITO and Automat. 2005 saw ex Skam artist 'Made' release an amazing double album called Tracktitle - an amazing mix of downbeat tracks driven by dirty hip-hop beats.

One of the real gems for the label came in 2006 with the 1st installment for the 'Lost Trax' series, a series which is set to continue throughout 2010 and beyond. The idea behind the series is to anonymously release music from prolific techno producers who want to release high quality music regardless of current trends and do what they do best! www.scsi-av.co.uk

Victor Popescu, otherwise known as 'brazda lui novac', has been making a name for himself in the emerging Romanian electronica scene for the last couple of years by producing his own act and helping others do the same. His music reaches out to all the electronica/shoegaze/ambient/drone musical cliques and it seems like its intention is to construct a cinema-scape of melancholy, moodiness and thought in the minds of its listeners. Victor started his own label this year, Square Sound Records, and is now involved in releasing organic, electronified haunting harmonies onto the digital market. www.squaresoundrecords.com

Press release: Looking forward in 2010 to a Clear Future? That's the title of the new EP from Downstream owner Damon Vallero as he delivers release number 23 for the label. Comprising three tracks of deep house with a teched out west coast feel, this could well be one of the label's best releases to date. The title track drives an insistent groove through filtered, spatial chords topped off with an atmospheric sax sample. Faces On Your Mirror has a more laid back jazzy feel while Pictures On Your Skin gets back on a tech beat with more filterpherics and deep sounds.

Press release: Quantum Singularity, follows on from the success of Electrum Shiv's "Brilliance in Shadows" Hard Dance/Hard Trance EP. You asked for more of the same, and so this time around Electrum has done just that, but upped the tempo and is dishing out some funky seriously addictive Techno, no two ways about it. As with the previous release, every track is huge, his control over the whole range of the percussion, and the way that the bass and synth riffs grab you, lift you off your feet, throw you around the dance floor, and then gently plonk you back down is an experience that everyone should try at least once, although that being said, once you've listened to an Electrum Shiv track, you will want more and more and more. So i'm pleased to say that there is a lot more to come from Electrum Shiv in 2010 and beyond. This guy is bringing Techno back to the UK

Release date: 28-03-2010

Press release: Visonn's debut release "Chamo and Honey EP" moves through today's electronic dance music genres seamlessly, taking influence from 90's house, 80's electro, dubstep and hiphop. Each song on the ep vibes differently from the last, offering a variety of sounds from start to finish. "Ballantines's Terror" opens the ep mixing breakbeats with dubstep undertones. "Floor Rat" is a throw back house jam with elements of acid house, driven by a powerful 909 kick. "Barfly" switches it up nicely with a half time stepping beat, deep bass and twinkling lead melody. Title track "Chamo and Honey" moves through slick beat changes alongside a warm filtered pad and dark pitch bent melodies. The release also features remixes of "Chamo and Honey" by Blue Neptune who conjures up a deep house fix as well as TapeDeckBros who take you on a thumping club house trip.

Artist: Aaron und Pascal

Label: Minoi Music

Release name: A ce Soir!

File under: House/Minimal House

Release date: 15-04-2010

Press release: Minoi Music stays in Italy for this 7th release. We're proud to have Aaron und Pascal on board. They have seen recently with Nick Curly, Pemont, Marc Antona or Shlomi Amber. Production-wise, they deliver a minimal house track very groovy and modern. The B face is collaboration with luca Morini. After 20 or so tracks in 2009, he starts 2010 by putting his Deep House touch to this remix.Keep this name in mind for Aaron und Pascal are very soon going to be on every charts.Feedbacks:Mendo clarisse records 10/10 The first(original) in my set!!!!Dj cruze Both are awesome tracks. Artist: Hakim Murphy & Inbum Cho

Label: Nowar

Release name: Nothing

File under: House/Deep House

Release date: 08-04-2010

Press release: For the third Nowar release, Chicago house producers Hakim Murphy and Inbum Cho team up for this beautifully organic trip into deep grooves and lullaby melodies on a steady deep house rhythm. Sweet strings, gentle melodic rhodes chords and a bassline that will get you hooked instantly. It's an armchair staring-at-the-night sky house essential! Hakim Murphy is no stranger to proper house music. He already has some quality timeless releases out on Metamorphic, Planet Detroit and Synapsis Records which he runs with Inbum Cho. On remix duty we find the Spanish grandmaster of deep, Madrid's Dubbyman. With a string of quality releases under his belt on various labels such as his very own Deep Explorer, Dpress Industries and Yore Records, he is definitely the perfect match remixwise for this project. He skillfully preserves the organic touch of the original while adding his own brand of deepness with beautiful strings, echoing vocals, building further on the melodic side of the original to come up with a sexy and essential deep house gem that will call for the spin of your turntable. Next to the sound, the record sleeve is a beauty you simply don't want to miss out on.

Label: Permanent Damage Records

Release name: Death of Everything Cool

File under: Garage/Dubstep

Release date: 06-04-2010

Press release: With releases coming out on several labels in early 2010, dubstep fans will be forgiven for thinking that they've slept on Alexis K, the latest and greatest from Wellington, New Zealand. Her tracks have the poise and polish of somebody who has been in the game for a long time, and she's garnering serious attention and respect on the scene from DJ's and media around the world. But the truth is, this phenom has only been producing for a couple years, with her first EP on Permanent Damage Records, "The Death of Everything Cool," marking the start of a promising future. A multi-talented instrumentalist, AlexisK got her start playing drums, and later guitar, for several bands in New Zealand. Taking a wealth of musical knowledge and influences into her work, she's breaking all the rules of dubstep and has a sound that is current, unique, and progressive. Each track on "Death of Everything Cool" showcases Alexis' strong sense of composition and understanding of melody, while seamlessly mixing genres like surf, reggae, classical, and more. AlexisK is the dubstep outlaw, breaking rules and leaving a trail of instant classics along the way. The title track, prominently featuring Alexis herself on guitar, sounds like Dick Dale during the apocolypse. "Sundance at Dawn" is the most aggressive release on the EP, with a vicious bassline and mind-bending beats.

Rounding out the release is "Cirque des Reves," with its classical arpeggios that devolve into atonal bliss, and her wildly popular remix of "Beatiful Day." Already being hailed as "The First Lady of Dubstep," and with her first releases coming out, airplay on BBC radio, and DJ support abound, 2010 will be the breakout year for this talented young artist.

Artist: Mark Rogan

Label: Static Recordings

Release name: Solar Flare EP Remixes

File under: Techno/ Techno

Release date: 08-04-2010

Press release: Following on from Mark's first release on Static we have three stellar remixes by three of Ireland's rising talents. With three distinctly different takes on the originals, Glenn's mix has the high octane funk, Sonic 86 takes it in a more industrial direction and Jamie Behan's mix takes it somewhere else entirely...spaced out and pumping.

Track: 1 - Mark Rogan - Solar Flare (Glenn Keohane's Theory N Melody Remix)

Track: 2 - Mark Rogan - Sea of Tranquility (Sonic 86 Remix)

Track: 3 - Mark Rogan - Sea of Tranquility (Jamie Behan's Unruly River Remix)

Press release: 7, a number always magical, mysterious, full of sanctity and with a rich symbolism that connotes since ancient times. That 7 can be considered the symbol of the fullness of spiritual and cosmic, the sacred number par excellence, is confirmed by the strong symbolic conferred in many religions. In the book of Revelation, the end of the world will be announced by the breaking of the 7 Seals, 7 trumpets, followed by the sound of the mouth of the 7 Angels, then by 7 wonders and finally by the payment of the 7 cups of the wrath of God.
